

 DISTRICT OF Sooke	TERMS OF REFERENCE
	MRDT Tourism Advisory Committee
	Date Adopted: May 11, 2026
Historical Changes:

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Tourism Advisory Committee, herein referred to as the Committee, is to monitor, evaluate, advise, and make recommendations to the District of Sooke Council with respect to the policies and strategic initiatives related to marketing and promoting Sooke’s tourism sector as outlined in the 2026 Five-Year Strategic MRDT Business Plan and the 2026 One Year MRDT Tactical Plan. The Term of the Advisory Committee is for the remainder of 2026 and 2027.

PREAMBLE

Under the advice of the Committee, the District of Sooke aims to support the growing tourism sector through the delivery of a comprehensive marketing and management campaign to promote visitation and tourism to the community.

The Committee membership consisting of representatives from the local government, business community, and regional tourism organizations seeking to improve the marketability and demand for tourism in the local area, specifically within the municipality of Sooke. The Committee strives to identify the evolving needs and desires of visitors to the community and strengthen the local tourism sector’s ability and capacity to respond to visitor needs and offer exemplary services and experiences.

Facilitation of tourism is considered an economic benefit to not only the direct tourism sector but also to the general economy of Sooke. Front line accommodation sector is the first to benefit from tourism, however it is recognized that additional economic benefit will result from longer and enhanced tourism visits. Dedicated tourism-related marketing funding is needed to accomplish goals common to the tourism sector. The most readily available funds are MRDT (Municipal Regional District Tax) funds which are currently levied at 3% of accommodation daily rates for overnight stays.
